Martha opened her own quilting business in 2014 and hasn't looked back. She is a well-rounded quilter and business owner. Martha is a quilt designer and teacher. She has written several books about quilting and has a blog called quiltingbymartha.com. Martha was born in South Dakota and raised in Minnesota. She has traveled extensively and loves teaching longarm quilting at major shows both in the US and at international shows. Martha has a degree in both biology and sociology from the University of Minnesota. She loves spending time with her family and friends. She is married and has three grown children. She also has two dogs, a cat, and a goldfish. Martha enjoys spending time in her garden, reading, and cooking. She also loves to travel and has visited many countries around the world. Her favorite food is pizza and her favorite color is blue. She enjoys longarm quilting and loves the creativity that comes from piecing fabrics together. She is a Jillaroo, which means she is a leader in the quilting world. She is also a quilter and loves creating beautiful quilts. She is a crafty individual who enjoys making things and loves to share her knowledge and skills with others through her blog and classes. She is a great motivator and encourages others to pursue their dreams and passions. She is a kind and caring person who is always ready to lend a helping hand. She is a great role model and an inspiration to others.